ARTICLE V OFFICERS

The officers of the Council shall be Chair, Vice Chair and Secretary. These individuals shall be elected from the Council by majority vote of the members of the Council during the specified election period.

Chair

- A. The Chair shall be a member of the Council from the general public, and in good standing. The Chair convenes and presides over all meetings of the Council; serves as spokesperson for the Council; represents the Council on the local, State and national level; serves as the Council's liaison to the Governor and other elected officials; appoints members to standing and ad-hoc committees; and serves as ex-officio member of all council sub-committees.

Vice- Chair

- A. The Vice-Chair shall be a member of the Council from State government, and in good standing. The Vice-Chair assumes all duties and responsibilities of the Chair in the absence of the Chair, and carries out all other duties on behalf of the Council as requested by the Chair. In the event that the Chair is not able to complete a term in office the Vice-Chair shall act as Chair until a new Chair is elected by majority vote of the Council to fulfill the remaining term of the previous Chair. The Vice-Chair shall be an ex-officio member of all subcommittees.

Secretary

- A. The Secretary shall be the official record keeper of the Council. The Secretary is also the official keeper of the records of the organization, which include: 1) the official membership roll, 2) a list of all committees and their names, 3) the most current copy of the By-laws with any amendments noted and any special rules adopted by the organization, 4) a copy of the policies and procedures manual, and 5) any other documents necessary to be present at all meetings to include the most recent copy of Roberts Rules of Order. In the event of a roll call vote, the Secretary assists by calling each member's name and recording his/her vote. The Secretary is also responsible for sending out notices of meetings and other correspondence.
- B. The Secretary is also responsible for ensuring that accurate and sufficient documentation exists to meet legal requirements, and to enable authorized persons to determine when, how, and by whom the council's business was conducted. In order to fulfill these responsibilities, and subject to the organization's bylaws, the Secretary records minutes of meetings, ensures their accuracy, and availability, submits various reports to the council, maintains membership records, and performs other duties as the need arises and/or as defined in these bylaws.

ARTICLE VI NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

- A. Elections for officers shall be held at the annual meeting in June and hold office for two years, unless otherwise duly terminated. The Chair may be elected to additional terms, but shall be limited to two consecutive two-year terms. This restriction may be waived, for good cause, by a two-thirds vote of the Council present at the elections meeting, but this waiver is limited to only one additional two-year term.
- B. Members shall be notified of an upcoming election at least one month in advance.

ARTICLE VII MEETINGS

- A. The Council shall meet quarterly (based on fiscal year July 1 – June 30). A simple majority of appointed members of the Membership shall be considered a quorum and shall have the authority to conduct business on behalf of the Council. Decision making and voting shall be based on simple majority vote of those present or by signed and written proxy vote.
- B. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order newly Revised Edition shall govern the conduct of meetings of the Council in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these By-laws and any special rules of order the Council may adopt. The order of business at Council meetings shall be adjudicated by the Chair.
- C. Notices of regular Council meetings shall be communicated to Council members by the Chair, or Secretary at least ten days prior to the scheduled date of meetings and such notice shall state time, place, and purposes thereof. Agenda for annual and/or regular meetings of the Council shall be prepared by the Chair in accordance with directions of the Council and shall be distributed to members in time to guide the scheduled meeting times.
- D. The Council meeting held in June of each year shall be designated “The Annual Meeting.” During an election year, the Chair of the annual meeting shall be turned over to the Chair of the elections committee upon completion of the necessary business of the day, for the purpose of conducting scheduled elections. When all voting has been certified completed and counted and the new slate of officers duly inducted, the gavel of the chair shall be turned over to the new Chair who becomes the meeting chair. Attendance at the Annual Meeting is mandatory for all members who wish to exercise their voting rights on all matters discussed at the Annual Meeting.
- E. Special meetings may be called by the Chair or upon petition to the Chair by at least five council members and approval of the Director; however, notice of any special meetings shall be given to each member not less than ten days before such meeting. The notice shall give the date, time, and place of the meeting and shall include an agenda for the special meeting.
- F. All meetings will be held in areas compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (ADAAG).
- G. Equally effective communications will be provided for all meetings.
- H. Minutes for each regularly scheduled meeting will be scribed and approved at the start of the next regularly scheduled meeting. Minutes from the previously scheduled meeting will be disseminated to Council members at least 2 weeks prior to the next meeting to allow the proper time for review.

- I. Attendance will be recorded using a sign in sheet and recorded as part of the minutes for each regularly scheduled meeting.

ARTICLE IX AMENDMENTS

- A. Bylaws will be reviewed annually during the first quarterly meeting of the calendar year.
- B. Any member may propose an amendment to the Bylaws. Favorable vote by two-thirds of the membership required for adoption of the proposed amendment. Copies of the proposed amendments and notice of its consideration must be mailed, faxed or emailed to each member at least two weeks prior to the date of the meeting at which adoption of the amendment would be considered. The Bylaws should not supersede, conflict or impede with any statutory authority particularly those assigned to the Office or the Council.
